Volunteer Duties & Procedures

The Guam Public Library System is committed to the idea that involving volunteers in its operation will assist in carrying out its mission for the community. Therefore, we believe that:

- Volunteers allow the library to provide enhanced services to the community.
- Volunteers provide a vital link between the library and the community both by informing the community about the services the library has to offer and by bringing valuable community input to the library planning process.
- A thoughtfully planned and well-managed volunteer program can bring a wealth of benefit to the library, its staff, the community, and the volunteers.
- A successful volunteer program requires that staff and volunteers work as a team to implement the mission and goals of the library.

BECOMING A VOLUNTEER:

A Successful volunteer program requires that staff and volunteers work as a team to implement the mission and goals of the Guam Public Library System. Volunteers supplement but do not supplant library staff; Volunteer's complement but do not replace library staff.

To become a volunteer you will need to complete the following steps:

- Complete and submit the Volunteer Application form to the Volunteer Coordinator.
- Complete a brief in-person or telephone interviews
- Receive an orientation including a tour of the building, introduction to library staff, and review of the Volunteer Handbook.
- Receive additional job orientation and training relative to those specific assigned volunteer jobs.

SUPERVISION:

Each volunteer will have an on-site supervisor and is expected to follow the procedures established by that staff member. Your supervisor is responsible for day-to-day management and guidance of their work and will be available for consultation and assistance. Please feel free to ask any questions of this person or report any problem or concerns you have about your assignment. If you are unable to contact your supervisor, the Volunteer Coordinator is available to discuss any changes or problems.

JOB ORIENTATION & TRAINING:

Before beginning your regular volunteer assignment, your supervisor will discuss the following items with you:

- Receive a tour of the building
- Be introduced to library staff
- Review the volunteer handbook
- Review job duties and expectations
- Confirm work dates, times, and anticipated duration of your participation
- Supply you with your name tag and review sign-in and sign-out procedures
- Provide training on any new skills needed to perform assigned task
- Discuss procedures for obtaining, using, and caring for needed supplies
- Provide safety orientation
- Review locations of parking, restrooms, water fountains, soda machines, first-aid kits, and places for your personal items such as purses/coats, etc.

ATTENDANCE:

Your supervisor and co-workers value your contributions and they depend on you to be present at the scheduled time. Volunteers who know they will be absent or late should notify their supervisor or the Volunteer Coordinator as soon as possible.

REPORTING FOR DUTY, KEEPING WORK HOURS:

You need to report to your assigned supervisor (or person in charge) upon arrival. You must sign in at the beginning and sign out upon completion of your shift, noting the total number of hours that you worked. Keeping an accurate tally of your volunteer work hours is very important.

APPEARANCE:

Volunteers are ambassadors for the library and need to present a positive image to the public. It is expected that each volunteer's dress and grooming will be appropriate for a business environment and in keeping with his or her work assignment. If a volunteer is dressed in an inappropriate manner, they may not be able to work their shift.

NAME TAGS:

We have many volunteers and want to get to know each of you. To accomplish this we will need your help. Please introduce yourself to staff and other volunteers. Always wear your name badge while working in the library. Because you are a valuable volunteer to the Guam Public Library System, It is important for library patrons to be able to identify individuals who are able to help them with directions and information.

CUSTOMER SERVICE:

Many volunteers come into contact with library patrons and may well be the first official contact a patron has with the library. It is important, therefore, that volunteer maintain a professional, friendly demeanor at all times. Volunteers are asked to direct all questions to a staff member. Staff members are trained to deal with question about the library's collection, services, policies, and procedures.

CONFIDENTIALITY/PRIVACY:

All transactions between library users and staff or volunteers are strictly confidential. Volunteers are required to uphold this policy. This includes any information about materials a patron has looked at, asked for, requested, or checked out, as well as reference questions asked by library users.

PERSONAL DATA:

Volunteers are responsible for updating personal data, such as change of address, contact telephone number, etc., with the Volunteer Coordinator.

TELEPHONE AND EQUIPMENT USE:

The library is a place of business. Ask a staff member if you need to make a telephone call. Please keep all calls brief and quiet. Long distant phone calls are not allowed. Cell phones are not allowed during desk schedule hours or when library is opened to the public. Library owned equipment and supplies are for Library use only and may not be used for personal business.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Because safety is everyone's job, volunteers are asked to be alert at all times to safety hazards. Unsafe acts or conditions should be reported to your supervisor. Please notify your supervisor of any assignment, which causes physical discomfort or which could lead to personal injury. All injuries, whether minor or serious, must be reported directly to your supervisor or the Volunteer Coordinator immediately.

DRUG FREE WORKPLACE:

Volunteers, in their capacity as unpaid staff, are expected to meet the same standard of professionalism required of library staff. Because an unsatisfactory volunteer is an unfair burden upon fellow volunteers and library employees, those who fall to meet the requirements of the job descriptions or violate library policies are subject to dismissal.

LEAVING THE VOLUNTEER PROGRAM:

To end a volunteer commitment, notify your supervisor or the Volunteer Coordinator of your decision and the effective date.
